OHIO – XANTERRA SALT FORK

Xanterra Salt Fork Lodge and Conference Center is tucked away in the rolling hills of southeastern Ohio nestled along the water’s edge of Salt Fork Lake. Salt Fork State Park is the largest in the state, with miles of woods and meadows that host recreational trails, wildlife, and impressive views of the lake. This is a good location for students who love the nature and hiking as Salt Fork State Park offers miles of outdoor hiking trails. Periodically throughout the summer, this employer will take students to the beach on Salt Fork Lake, Ohio’s largest inland beach which offers swimming, fishing and boat rentals. Cambridge is the nearest town with a population of around 10,000 people and hosts the Dickens Victorian Village, the Official Paul Bunyan Show, and the Hopalong Cassidy Museum. It is known for its famous glass factories.
